This emergency loan agreement is designed to assist students who have a definite emergency financial need. The amount of emergency loan money available is at a minimum. We would like you to check other resources first and if possible, leave the emergency money to those students who do not have other resources.

Students who have a demonstrated need and who have filed for and are eligible to receive a State or Federal grant or scholarship are eligible to utilize the emergency loan programs. You may need to submit documentation of the emergency and amount needed. One loan per quarter is available to students who meet the eligibility requirements. Submit this application and supporting documentation to the Vice President of Administration and Student Life.

If approved, emergency loan checks are available at the Business Office AFTER 3:30 pm.
